Naples, October 10, N. S.

AS the Turkiſh Miniſter has in a genteel Manner refuſed to accept the Ship of War Parthenope, which was appointed to carry him back to Conſtantinople, the Court has freighted a Neapolitan and a Malteſe Ship, which are both large Merchantmen, and are to carry the King's Colours; the former is to conduct the Turkiſh Miniſter, and the latter the Knight of Malta Majo, who is appointed the King's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Port, in the Room of M. Finocchietti who is recalled. On the 5th there was a ſplendid Appearance at Court on Occaſion of the Queen's having entred into the fifth Month of her Pregnancy.

Rome, Oct. 14, N. S. Pere Auguſtin of Lugano, who is charged with the Eccleſiaſtical Affairs of the Queen of Hungary, &c. to the Pope, has lately received Inſtructions to repreſent, that as the Hungarians offer to engage all their Forces in Aid of the Queen, they required ſeveral Favours, for the Conceſſion of which the Queen required the Pope's Conſent. M. Sampario, the Portugueſe Miniſter, has preſented to the Pope a White Wolf Skin lined with Roſe-colour Sattin, embroidered with Gold, which the Pope received very kindly.

Leghorn, Oct. 6, N. S. The Toulon Squadron is not yet ſailed: This Squadron conſiſts of 16 Men of War and five Store-ſhips, and only wait for their ſailing Orders from the French Court. On the 9th his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Durſley, Captain Hughes Commander, ſailed out of this Port on a Cruize. On the 10th the Regiment of Pallavicini Foot marched from this Garriſon for Lombardy by the Lunigiana, and were this Day followed by that of Neiperg.

Florence, Oct. 17, N. S. On the 3d Inſtant Don Sancho de Luna, a Neapolitan Prince, was, by Order of the Regency, and at the Requeſt of the Court of Naples, arreſted at Prato, where he lately arrived in Company with the Wife of a Phyſician of the Court, whom he had clandeſtinely carried away from Naples. The Prince was confined in the Old Caſtle, whence on the 7th he was removed to Orbitello, in order to be embarked for Naples; but the Woman ſtill continues in the common Goal. On the 4th the Great Duke's Name-day was celebrated here with the uſual Solemnity; the Miniſters, Nobility, &c. appeared in rich Habits; Prince Craon entertained many of them at Dinner; and in the Evening there was an Aſſembly for the Ladies. On the 7th the Electreſs Dowager Palatine ſet out for the Convent della Quiete, where her Highneſs propoſes to paſs ſome Weeks. On the 9th five Soldiers of the Lorrain Regiment of Foot Guards deſerted from the Old Caſtle. On the 15th a Party of 150 Huſſars of Havor's Regiment paſſed through this City from Siena, on their March to Lombardy by the Way of Bologna, and were this Day followed by ſuch another Party.

Breſlau, Oct. 25. The King of Pruſſia continues the Siege of Neiſs: His Majeſty has inſinuated to the Foreign Miniſters, that if they deferred their Journey to Berlin till he was ſet out, they would find it difficult to have Relays. The French Miniſter is returned from the Camp. Prince William the King's Brother, and the Sieur Rothenbourg, have been declared Majors General. The States of Sileſia are arriving here every Day in order to perform their Homage, which is deferred by reaſon of the Siege of Neiſs. Yeſterday Morning Meſſ. Feckel and Neubour, from Saxony, ſet out for the Camp.

Hubertsbourg, Nov. 1, N. S. M. Schonberg is appointed the firſt, and Baron Weiſſenberg the ſecond of the Saxon Embaſſy for the Election of an Emperor.

Hague. Nov. 7, N. S. The Prince of Heſſe Hombourg is come hither, in order to take the uſual Oath to the States General as Governor of Breda. Baron Solenthal, Envoy from the Court of Denmark, and M. Hoffman, Secretary from that of Dreſden, to the Court of Great Britain, propoſe paſſing over with this Mail to their Poſt at London. M. Alt, Miniſter from Heſſe Caſſel, is expected here To-morrow or next Day.
